

DRINK, DRANK, DRUNK

1. Place an X on the line indicating your opinion of alcohol.

Drinking alcohol is a sin and it's wrong.

Sometimes it's good, sometimes not.

Drink up! There's nothing wrong with it.

2. When do you think it's okay to drink alcohol? Circle your top three opinions.

Never

When you're at parties

When you need to unwind

When you're having a nice dinner

When you're taking communion at church

When you're thirsty

When you're with friends

When you're of legal age

When your parents give you permission

Whenever you want—in moderation

When you're at home

When you're depressed

3. What do you think—Y (yes), N (no), or M (maybe)?

___ Alcohol is a drug—like marijuana, cocaine, and heroin.

___ There's nothing wrong with drinking, if you don't get drunk.

___ If you don't drink, people will think you're unsociable or not cool.

___ It should be legal for teenagers to drink beer and wine.

___ The church is behind the times in its views on alcohol usage.

___ Teenagers should try alcohol at least once to see what it's like.

4. Jasmine's life seemed to be falling apart. She and her mother have never gotten along well, her father died several years ago, and her stepfather moved out last weekend. Tonight her mom said she had to work late, but Jasmine knows that isn't true—her mom has a new boyfriend.

Jasmine is home alone, feeling depressed, and she goes to the cupboard and pulls out a few bottles. A few drinks won't hurt.

a. Have you ever had a time when you felt this way? When?

b. What would you do if you were Jasmine?

c. What could she do besides drinking?

5. Check out one of these passages, and write a paraphrase in your own words.

Isaiah 5:11-12

Ephesians 5:18

1 Corinthians 6:12-13
