

FAMILY FRICTION

1

How much time do you spend with your parent or parents during an average week? (Circle one.)

- a. Hardly any time at all      c. Six to ten hours a week      e. More than 15 hours a week
 b. Less than five hours a week      d. 11 to 15 hours a week

2

When you are together with your parent or parents, how do you get along together? (Underline one.)

Excellent   Really good   Good   Not so good   Really poor

3

Check the top five things from the list below that you and your parent(s) argue about the most.

- |  |  |  |
|--|--|--|
| <input type="checkbox"/> Your school grades                          | <input type="checkbox"/> How you spend your allowance      | <input type="checkbox"/> Where you go  |
| <input type="checkbox"/> How you dress                               | <input type="checkbox"/> What your parents expect from you | <input type="checkbox"/> Your homework |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Your friends                                | <input type="checkbox"/> What TV shows you want to watch   | <input type="checkbox"/> Your chores   |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Your table manners                          | <input type="checkbox"/> Your church attendance            | <input type="checkbox"/> Other: _____  |
| <input type="checkbox"/> How you do in sports                        | <input type="checkbox"/> Your views on different things    | _____                                  |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Things you want your parents to buy for you |  | _____                                  |

4

Write one idea in the box below describing how you could get along better with your parents.

5

Read each of the following Bible verses found in Ephesians 4. Then decide how each can help make your relationship with your parents better.

Be patient, bearing with one another in love. Ephesians 4:2b

---

---

Speak the truth in love. Ephesians 4:15a

---

---

Be kind and compassionate to one another, forgiving each other, just as in Christ God forgave you. Ephesians 4:32

---

---