

Dear Potential Mentor,

Thank You for your interest in becoming a mentor in the ministry of Mentoring Tucson's Kids! We look forward to meeting with you and helping you in the process of matching you with a young boy or girl we both believe God would have you mentor.

Please complete the attached application, screening form, statement of faith, and contact information for references. We will also need a copy of your driver's license and proof of auto insurance with this application. Additionally, we will need a current fingerprint clearance card or you will be asked to get your fingerprints taken (information will be provided) which will cost $5 - $10. We pay to have the fingerprints processed.

Once your application is in, we will schedule a time to meet for an in-depth interview that will help us get to know you better and answer all of your questions. We will then coordinate a time for you to attend a four-hour Mentor Training. Lastly, we will conduct a background check as the final stage of the screening process.

Thank you again for considering Mentoring Tucson's Kids. Please feel free to check out our website at: www.mentoringtucsonskids.org to get a better idea of our ministry. If you have any questions, don't hesitate to call our office at (520) 624-4765.

For His kids,

Mary McGuire

Fact Sheet

Mentoring Tucson's Kids, is a one-on-one mentoring program that matches caring, Christian adults with youth. Men and women set aside four or more hours a month to care for a child that desperately needs an adult friend, a guide, a role model. Our mentors fill the gap for kids who are growing up in an environment with few resources, bringing them the love of Christ. You don't have to be an evangelist, a trained psychologist, or a social worker. You just need to be willing to have fun, care and encourage, and share your faith.

Mentors and their mentees build friendships while sharing a variety of activities like sporting events, church outings and group picnics. They explore new skills and academic pursuits. Most importantly, mentors introduce children to the gospel of Jesus Christ, allowing them to build their lives on the solid foundation of God's love.

Mentoring Tucson's Kids mentors are rigorously screened, including a state and national background check. As a mentor, you'll receive comprehensive initial training and regular contact with a Mentor Supervisor. And although the ministry is "one-on-one," Mentoring Tucson's Kids provides extensive support every step of the way, throughout your relationship with your mentee.

Mentoring Tucson's Kids targets youth between 5 and 18 and all youth must demonstrate at least one of the following risk factors:

- From a family with a parent in prison
- Living in a single parent home
- Any type of police or court contact
- Evidence of substance abuse
- Lagging behind in school or has dropped out
- Living below the poverty line
- History of physical, emotional, or sexual abuse

Most mentees are 10 to 14 years old. Some have parents who are unable to care for them. Most are in single parent homes without a father and consequently, many live in poverty. A few are on probation for minor offenses. And virtually all hunger for that trusted adult who could lead them through the confusion of growing up in a culture that affords many wrong choices.

Time won't wait for children without a place to turn. They just keep getting older ... and closer to destruction. They need to know there is a loving Savior who has a plan for their lives. Will you be His hands and lead them to a place in Eternity?

Frequently Asked Questions

1. How do I find time in my schedule to mentor a child?

Kids like to be with their mentors. They don't always need to be entertained. Including them in your day-to-day activities helps them to feel a part of your life. If you're going to do some errands, call your mentee and get some ice cream on the way home. Or just spend some time "hanging out" with your mentee...it's a legitimate reason to have fun for an hour or so. Your time with your mentee may be something that you already do by yourself or with your family. Consistency is the key to building a significant relationship. And remember, it's the simple things that count.

2. Isn't it difficult to mentor someone else's child?

You will be developing a relationship with a child, to help him or her grow emotionally, academically, and spiritually. Your relationship will become a friendship, guiding your mentee toward Christ and a healthy lifestyle. Engaging in fun, interesting activities that you and your mentee enjoy or helping your mentee with schoolwork are just some of the things you can do to make it easy. Parents with limited resources are grateful for the support and guidance you can provide the child.

3. Can I mentor with my spouse?

Mentoring Tucson's Kids has several options for mentors besides the traditional one-to-one match. We have many couples mentoring together, sometimes one child or a pair of siblings. We have couples mentoring families and even families mentoring families.

4. What if something comes up with my mentee I can't handle?

Most of our mentors are not counselors or social workers. They are just people like you, willing to become a friend. Showing your mentee that you care and being consistent are what count! Every mentor has a trained Mentor Coordinator to help with any problems or concerns that may develop. You will keep your Mentor Coordinator informed about your meetings with your mentee, and your Mentor Coordinator will be available to problem-solve with you. You will meet other effective mentors at our activities, training sessions and support meetings. You won't be in this alone, but will have a team of people supporting your efforts.

5. Can I pick the child I mentor?

Your preferences will be considered and you'll decide when to accept a mentee. All of our volunteer mentors and mentees are interviewed, and we do our best to put together matches that will succeed. We join you in prayer as we search for the child God has picked for you.

6. What is the mentor application and screening process?

Once you have reviewed the information and application packet, just complete the application and return it to us. Once we receive your application, we will review it, process your background check and personal references, and let you know about upcoming training sessions. After training, we will schedule a face-to-face interview with you. We will also conduct a home assessment, since mentors often have their mentee in or around their homes. You will then attend a training session before we match you with a child or adolescence.

VOLUNTEER MENTOR APPLICATION

The Mentoring Tucson's Kids application process is intended to assist in providing a safe and secure experience for the children and adolescents who participate as a mentee in our programs. This process reflects our commitment to provide protective care and growth for all these children. Your completed application will be kept in confidentiality, in accordance with the Mentoring Tucson's Kids Confidentiality Policy. Please mail the completed application to PO Box 41506, Tucson, AZ 85717.

STATEMENT OF FAITH:

We believe in one God, Creator and Lord of the Universe, the co-eternal Trinity: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

We believe that Jesus Christ, God's Son, was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, lived a sinless life, died a substitutionary atoning death on the cross, rose bodily from the dead and ascended to heaven where, as truly God and truly man, He is the only mediator between God and man.

We believe that the Bible is God's authoritative and inspired Word. It is without error in all its teachings, including creation, history, its own origins, and salvation. Christians must submit to its divine authority, both individually and corporately, in all matters of belief and conduct, which is demonstrated by true righteous living.

We believe that all people are lost sinners and cannot see the Kingdom of God except through the new birth. Justification is by grace through faith in Christ alone.

We believe in one holy, universal and apostolic Church. Its calling is to worship God and witness concerning its Head, Jesus Christ, preaching the Gospel among all nations and demonstrating its commitment by compassionate service to the needs of human beings and promoting righteousness and justice.

We believe in the necessity of the work of the Holy Spirit for the individual's new birth and growth to maturity, and for the Church's constant renewal in truth, wisdom, faith, holiness, love, power, and mission.

We believe that Jesus Christ will personally and visibly return in glory to raise the dead and bring salvation and judgment to completion. God will fully manifest His kingdom when He establishes a new heaven and new earth, in which He will be glorified forever, and exclude all evil, suffering, and death.
